MEDIA RELEASE

CENTRAL MARKET – NO#1 FOR SMALLGOODS

With over 140 years of experience and 80 stalls under 1 roof, the Adelaide Central Market continues to provide the people of Adelaide with the freshest and largest range of local, national & imported products.

There are hundreds of smallgoods to choose from and new ones arriving in the Market every day! Its traders and business owners come from all around the world, offering a multicultural community experience. The Market is simply one of a kind.

Our traders are passionate about what they do and will source the best, freshest and widest range of products on offer. They will talk to you about what's in season, inspire you to experiment with new ingredients and introduce you to an incredible range of products.

So whether you're looking for your favourite salami, a traditional ham, or something a little more gourmet, the Adelaide Central Market has it all!
